On top of old Smokey all covered with snow

I lost my true lover for courtin' too slow

Oh courtin's a pleasure and parting is grief

But a false hearted lover is worse than a thief

For a thief will just rob you take all that you have

But false-hearted lovers take you to your grave

The grave will decay you turn you into dust

And it just isn't one girl a poor boy can trust

So come all you lovers and listen to me

Don't place your affection on a green willow tree

The leaves will all wither the roots will all die

Then you'll be forgotten but you'll never know why
