If I see you tomorrow

on some street in town

I belong to another,

it wouldn't look so good

To know someone

I'm not supposed to know

Just walk on by, wait on the corner

I love you, but we're strangers when we meet

In a dimly lit corner

in a place outside of town

But I know it's not over,

I'll call tomorrow night

|---|--------------------------|--|
| D | 2 3 5 3 2 1 2 0 0 | |

I can't let you go, so why pretend?
