And one could tell by how he walked that he drunk more than his share

He fumbled round until he could no longer keep his feet

Then he stumbled off into the grass to sleep beside the street

About that time two young and lovely girls just happened by

One says to the other with a twinkle in her eye

See yon sleeping Scotsman so strong and handsome built

I wonder if it's true what they don't wear beneath the kilt

They crept up on that sleeping Scotsman quiet as could be

D	0 2~2 2 3~3 3~3 4 4 5 4 2 1

And lifted up his kilt about an inch so they could see

D	4 5 5~5 6 7 4~4 4 5 4 3 2 4

And there behold, for them to see, beneath his Scottish skirt

Was nothing more than God had graced him with upon his birth

They marveled for a moment, then one said we must be gone

D	2~2 2 3~3 4 5 4 2 4 5 4 2 1

Let's leave a present for our friend, before we move along

D	4 5~5 5 5 6 7 4 4~4 5 4 3 2 4

As a gift they left a blue silk ribbon, tied into a bow

Around the bonnie star, the Scots kilt did lift and show

Now the Scotsman woke to nature's call and stumbled towards a tree

Behind a bush, he lifts his kilt and gawks at what he sees

And in a startled voice he says to what's before his eyes.
